

BROWN GLIER LAW

Sydney Short Paralegal

Sydney is a paralegal with Brown Glier Law and aids in the preparation of employment-based non-immigrant and immigrant petitions. Sydney graduated from IUPUI with a bachelor's degree in Global & International Studies and a minor in Communication Studies. During college, she was the 2022 recipient of IUPUI's Winslow Prize in Political Theory. Her work experience in college includes completing an internship in marketing analytics and serving as a teaching assistant for IU's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy.

Before moving to Indianapolis in 2021 to pursue further education, Sydney earned her associate degree in Business Administration from Ivy Tech Fort Wayne.

Prior to joining the BGL team, Sydney held multiple positions in administrative, customer service, and data entry fields, providing her with an unwavering client-focused approach and a passion for advocacy.

Outside of the office, she enjoys traveling, shopping, baking, and spending time with friends and family.

Sydney is not licensed to practice law.
