

BROWN GLIER LAW

Asaka Cadio

Immigration Paralegal and Project Manager

Focused on business immigration, Asaka assists clients across a variety of industries in meeting their immigration-related needs for their employees and family members. Her work focuses on preparing nonimmigrant visa petitions, PERM labor certification applications, and immigrant petitions. Asaka has extensive experience working with clients in managing the relocation and retention of highly valued executives, managers, professors, and other highly valued professionals.

Asaka holds a Bachelor's Degree in Foreign Language from the Tokyo University of Foreign Studies. She is a native Japanese speaker, as well as conversationally proficient in Chinese and French. Prior to joining Brown Glier Law, she worked as an immigration paralegal for law firms in Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

Outside of work, Asaka enjoys spending time with and traveling with her family, cooking and running.

Asaka is not licensed to practice law.
